letter, through Charge, on October 7 to the Foreign Minister.

The Foreign Minister was on travel during the week of October 10; neither he nor his staff have been available to comment on the issue.

¶12. Contacts by Econcouns indicate that there is concern in the private sector about the convention. The Executive Director of the American Chamber of Commerce told Econ Counselor that he had been contacted by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce about the UNESCO issue and would seek an appointment with GOES officials to express AmCham concerns. The President of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of El Salvador listened with interest when Econcouns raised the issue. Post is sharing information with these organizations to encourage them to weigh in on the issue with the GOES.
